If you believe that you have been unjustly denied WIC Program participation, you may request a fair hearing by calling or writing to the above address within 60 days. You have the right to have any positions or arguments on your behalf presented personally or by a representative such as a relative, friend, legal counsel or other spokesperson. If you are denied benefits during the initial certification, you will not receive WIC benefits while awaiting a hearing decision. If you are a current WIC participant and request a hearing within 15 days, you will continue to receive WIC benefits until a hearing decision is reached or your certification period expires, whichever occurs first. Your benefits will be terminated pending a hearing decision when a request for a hearing is received after 15 days. A pre-hearing conference can be provided prior to the hearing.

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) policy, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or retaliation.

If you require this information in alternative format (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.), contact the USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (Voice or TDD).
