WIC Cashier Responsibilities

ACCEPTING WIC VOUCHERS

- Ask for the WIC ID folder and keep it until the end of the sale. Do not allow a sale if the WIC ID folder is unsigned or not presented. Refer customers back to their local WIC clinic if there are problems with their WIC ID folders.
- Check the WIC voucher for valid dates.
- Handle each WIC voucher as a separate transaction.
- Refer to the West Virginia WIC approved Shopping Guide if unsure an item being purchased is WV WIC approved. Do not rely on your scanner.
- Enter the purchase price, in dollars and cents, on the WIC voucher.
- Have the customer sign the WIC voucher and compare signatures with the WIC ID folder (do not ask for any other form of ID).
- Return the WIC ID folder to the customer.
- Date of sale is required – either entered by the register or by writing on the front or back of the WIC voucher.
- Always offer your West Virginia WIC customers their receipts. The receipt must identify the transaction as a WIC transaction.

A STORE MUST:

- Refuse a WIC voucher if no WIC ID folder is available.
- Refuse a WIC voucher if it is altered in any way.
- Refuse a WIC voucher if dates are invalid.
- Refuse to substitute items not on the WV WIC approved Shopping Guide.
- Allow manufacturers-coupons/store discount cards.
- Allow buy one get one free items.
- Never issue rain checks or credits.

Checkout Tips

Lactose-reduced and lactose-free milk can only be purchased in half gallon sized containers unless a different size is specified on the voucher.

Lactose-reduced and lactose-free milk is subject to the least expensive brand of milk policy.

Weights: What's helpful to know

Ounces = oz.

Pound = lb.

16 ounces = 1 pound

To correctly change a pricing error:

Use only ONE LINE through the incorrect price and enter correct price above it.

NEVER DO THIS:

ACCEPTING CASH VALUE VOUCHERS (CVV)

Note: Items in red indicate the differences between a standard voucher and a CVV.

- Ask for the WIC ID folder and keep it until the end of the sale. Do not allow a sale if the WIC ID folder is unsigned or not presented. Refer customers back to their local WIC clinic if there are problems with their WIC ID folders.
- Check the WIC cash value voucher for valid dates.
- Handle each WIC cash value voucher as a separate transaction. WIC customers may not use multiple CVV's towards a single purchase.
- Verify the customer's selection of fruits and vegetables. Use the West Virginia WIC approved Shopping Guide for reference.
- Enter the purchase price, in dollars and cents, on the CVV up to the printed face value. If the customer does not spend the full amount, you will not give any cash back.
- The customer is responsible for any amount over the maximum face value of the CVV, including tax. They may pay the overage with cash, check, SNAP food stamp card, credit or debit card. This is the exception to the rule of not charging tax on WIC items.
- Have the customer sign the WIC cash value voucher and compare signatures with the WIC ID folder (do not ask for any other form of ID).
- Return the WIC ID folder to the customer.
- Date of sale is required – either entered by the register or by writing on the front or back of the WIC cash value voucher.
- Always offer your West Virginia WIC customers their receipts. The receipt must identify the transaction as a WIC transaction.
